

CSI: Forensic

Italy

During the 2013-14 term, CSI: Forensic has continued to demonstrate a commitment to upholding standards of human rights and principles inherent in the United Nations Charter. The following success stories serve to illustrate the institution's efforts:

CSI: Forensic held a conference on the theme "Women and Work: the presence of women in the workplace and psychosocial risks". Speakers for the event included Dr. Srefano Amodio, Dr. Vincenzo Alfano, Dr. Biago

Cacciola, Dr. John D' Anjou, Maurizio Lozzi & Saverio Fortunato.

For her efforts involving the promotion of human rights of women in Morocco, CSI: Forensic's Dr. Souad Sbai was recently awarded the "Criminologia.it" prize. Her work has gone a long way towards exposing the brutality of domestic violence against women in the region.
