CUNY Baccalaureate for Unique and Interdisciplinary Studies

United States of America

During the 2013-14 period, CUNY has upheld its strong commitment to the promotion of core UNAI principles. Of particular note is the following event:

On October 18th, 2013, CUNY Baccalaureate for Unique and Interdisciplinary Studies and the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland co-hosted a panel discussion that engaged in comparative analysis of the 1989-92 revolutions in Eastern Europe and the Arab Spring currently engulfing the Middle East. In attendance were over 170 students, academics, and members of the diplomatic community. The event contributed to and broadened the academic discourse in the university.
