

United Nations Academic Impact

6 November 2017

Dear UNAI members and friends,

please find below the latest update from the United Nations Academic Impact and its members, as well as of other parts of the UN System.

With this issue we'd like to bring the upcoming UN Climate Change Conference 2017 to your attention and highlight a number of recent articles on our website.

Enjoy the read,
Your UNAI team

UN Climate Change Conference 2017: Further, Faster, Together

The city of Bonn, Germany, will host this year's UN Climate Change Conference and its more than 20,000 participants from 6-17 November.

To ensure a smooth running conference, more than 600 volunteers have been trained for this special occasion. Want to know more about their training? Read this article.

To stay up to date with everything discussed during the conference, check out this website.

Fourth Annual J. Michael Adams Lecture

Did you miss our J. Michael Adams Lecture entitled "Women Uniting Nations" held by Prof. Ruchira Gupta from New York University last Friday? Don't worry, you can still watch the lecture on UN Web TV.

Watch the Webcast

From Failed Governance to Building a New Future

How much do you know about the Central African Republic? Let UNAI member Euclid University (Pôle Universitaire Euclide) give you some background information on the current situation in the country.

Read more

Latest News from UNAI Member Institutions

On this year's DU Good Day, more than 400 members of Drake University (USA) joined efforts to build three homes for the homeless in the university's hometown Des Moines, Iowa.

Read more

Copyright © 2017 United Nations Academic Impact. All rights reserved.

You are receiving this email because your institution is a member of United Nations Academic Impact or you have requested to receive updates from UNAI.

Our mailing address is:

United Nations Academic Impact
405 East 42nd Street
New York, NY 10017

Add us to your address book

Want to change how you receive these emails?

You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list