

UNAI MEMBER ACTIVITY REPORTS 2013-2014

Università del Salento

Italy

The daily commitment of Università del Salento, as evidenced by the University's "Code of Ethics", is to carry out its institutional activities in accordance with ethical values and the principles set by the United Nations Academic Impact initiative. During the 2013-14 reporting period, emphasis has been placed on a commitment to creating educational opportunities for all people, regardless of gender, race, religion, or ethnicity, and on creating educational opportunities for every interested individual to acquire the skills and knowledge necessary for the pursuit of higher education.

The most important activity implemented in these domains is the establishment of a Department of Lifelong Learning (Servizio per l'Apprendimento Permanente) with the aim of coordinating the organization and implementation of educational initiatives being deployed in an environment characterized by rapid societal changes and constant transformations of the economic system.
